Mr. Amon G. Carter, FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM, Fort Worth, Texas

My dear A. G.:

I like the fine gracious spirit in which you answered Harold L. Ickes on pages 10 and 11 of THE STAR-TELEGRAM for April 11th.

Strange as it may seem it instantly recalled to my mind the series of articles that "Cissy" Patterson ran in the Washington Times-Herald, and especially one cartoon that depicted "Cissy" in an attitude of holding a skunk by the tail and the skunk was labelled -- "Dishonest Harold".

My opinion is that this exchange of compliments has added greatly to your personal reputation as a good sportsman and to the reputation of THE STAR-TELEGRAM, as an honest public servant.

Cordially yours,

James W. Brown
