Dear Mr. Carter:

Mr. Ickes blows off like that every once in a while. I have always considered him a "sound-off" man for the New Deal. This time he sounded off for Harold L. and didn't get away with it!

Anyway, it would take a better batter man than Ickes to tell Amon Carter where to get off and get away with it.

Congratulations on the job you did in pinning his ears back and on the fairness you show in the political picture.

With warm personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Linwood I. Noyes
