

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

This Clipping From

Greenville (Tex) Messenger

MAY 2 1940

Date.....

AMON CARTER GAVE ICKES A BLISTERING

Secretary Ickes has been exercising much authority as secretary of the interior and has tried to get federal control of oil and been shellacked in Texas more than once.

But, when he came to tell Texas what to do politically Amon Carter of Fort Worth, gave Mr. Ickes a dressing down that will likely keep him out of Texas politics, at least for a while.

Democratic government must exalt law and order first, and dictators of political programs like Ickes, are not needed in any democratic state except his own, other than by proper invitation. This Mr. Carter told him nicely.