The Editor.
Fort Worth Star Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Sir:

Your editorial, "Lindbergh Vs Freedom", which appeared in the Star Telegram of Sunday August 31, is the finest article I have ever read. I wish every red blooded American could read it, thoroughly digest it, then file it away in a safe place for future reference.

I am sick and tired of Lindbergh and his kind and I think our beloved country has been a little too tolerant of it's citizens who, while shouting from the roof-tops how loyal they are and will always be, to their own America, go about the country, a perfect symbol of Hitlerism. The very attitude of Lindbergh and others like him, is going to do more harm to the morale of the American people and their "Cause", than great hordes of Nazi Agents could possibly do.

Personally speaking, I am in favor of shipping these good friends of Hitler's, right back to Germany. There is one thing the Government and the citizens of Germany wouldn't have to put up with and few would ever know about, and that is that, no matter how much fault Mr. Lindbergh, Mr. Wheeler and others could find with the way the German Government was doing things, I hardly think Mr. Lindbergh or Mr. Wheeler would be given the Freedom with which to go about the country making speeches against Hitler.

Our Government may not be running along as these perpetual Grumblers would have it, but there is one certain fact, these same Grumblers wouldn't give up the precious Freedom they enjoy here in America, for that which is enjoyed by the German people.

There is little use in my saying we like the Star Telegram, for we have read it each day for twenty one years, which is proof enough, but I might say that we like it and have always like it because of the right stand it takes on all issues of importance and whose Editor is most always on the right side of the question.

Here's hoping we shall always have a good paper like the Star Telegram to read and a good country like AMERICA in which to read it.

Sincerely Yours,

(Signed) Mrs. M. W. Armistead
