

June 22, 1951

The Waldorf-Astoria

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Carter:

Our visit in your grand city was so delightful, and we want to thank you both for all that you did to make our stay there so full of interest and pleasure.

We have so enjoyed the delicious steaks and appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending these to the plane.

Again, our thanks to you and all good wishes in which both the General and Arthur join me.

Most sincerely,

Jean MacArthur