Dear Amon:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of General H. H. Arnold's letter of June 7th.

The Army has given us back enough airplanes now so that we are working day and night to get them reconditioned and in some cases converted for passenger operations and it looks as though American Airlines should have a total of 67 in operation by sometime in October which will be a great help over our present 52.

Yours sincerely,

R. S. Damon
