Dear Amon:

Having just returned from Mexico I am reminded of your suggestion that I should look up Mr. Hugo Anderson, Executive Vice President of the First National Bank in Chicago, who was at the Ritz in Mexico City.

I called Mr. Anderson two or three times and missed him, and left word with the telephone operator each time without success. One day I went into the Ritz to try to find Mr. Anderson but missed him again.

Maybe I just don't know how to get along in Mexico where no one seemed to understand me very well, but in any event I am sorry I couldn't make connections and take Mr. Anderson a message from you as you had suggested.

Kindest regards

Charles A. Rheinstrom
