Gentlemen:

We hand you, herewith, a statement of the City of Arlington regarding the so-called controversy between Mayor Rodgers, of Dallas, and the City of Fort Worth concerning our airport, which, in a sense of fairness and with all due respect to the various parties involved, we ask that you publish, giving it the same prominence as other articles on the same subject which you have heretofore published.

This statement from our City is for the sole purpose of clarifying the facts as the records will bear out.

W. F. ALTMAN
Mayor of Arlington
