

Midway Airport Assn. Elects New Officers

Plans for inaugurating airline operations at Midway Airport were under way today after T. E. Braniff, head of Braniff Airways, was elected president of the Midway Airport Assn.

Others include Amos Culbert, vice president of American Airlines, vice president; Raymond Buck, Fort Worth, American Airlines attorney, secretary, and C. G. Adams, Braniff secretary-treasurer, treasurer.

The presidency will alternate annually between Braniff and American, joint owners of Midway. The field is being used by the Navy-American Airlines twin-engined pilot training program, with headquarters at Meacham Field.
