Dear Amon:

I have just returned home and hasten to thank you for your thoughtful expressions at the passing of my brother. Your message gave me courage to face the trials ahead, and the flowers were a beautiful token of your warm friendship.

Please express my sincere thanks to Minnie, Ruth, Amon, Jr., Katrine, and Carl for their thoughtfulness at such a distressing time.

Sorry I was called away while you were in New York, for I would have liked to spend much more time with you. We will make up for this absence on your next trip.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Red
