FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NASAO AND NFFA TWO NEWEST GROUPS TO AFFILIATE WITH NATIONAL AIR COUNCIL

Invitations to become affiliate member organizations of the National Air Council have recently been accepted by the National Association of State Aviation Officials and the National Flying Farmers' Association, it was announced today by Charles D. Frazer, executive vice president of the Council.

Crocker Snow, president of NASAO, and Charley Rose, president of the Flying Farmers', will represent their respective organizations on the Council's Board of Governors and participate in the formulation and support of national air policies.

This action brings to ten the number of leading aviation groups now affiliated with the Council, the additional groups being: Aeronautical Training Society, Air Freight Association, Air Transport Association, Aviation Distributors & Manufacturers Association, Corporation Aircraft Owners Association, National Aeronautic Association, National Aviation Trades Association, and University Aviation Association.
