Dear Friend Carter:

As you know, we are to confer upon President Truman, here at Baylor University, an honorary degree at 11:00 Thursday morning, March 6th.

We would be pleased to have you present on this occasion to share with us the honors of the day. We are inviting you to occupy a seat on the platform and to take lunch with the President and a few friends immediately after the convocation.

Please advise me by wire upon receipt of this letter as to your coming.

Your friend,
