FOR RELEASE On Receipt

American Airlines, in cooperation with travel agents throughout the country, has begun selling three-day "Skylark" tours to New York City operated by the Roosevelt and Vanderbilt Hotels. Eight different "packaged" tours range in cost from $10.44 to $32.02 per person.

The tours may be purchased from travel agents or directly from American Airlines ticket counters just like transportation. Air fares are not included in the price but may be purchased simultaneously.

The listed prices are for two persons in a room. Costs are slightly less for groups of three and a little higher for one person alone.

The tours offer a choice of several programs. Most costly are those which provide an evening's entertainment at a top night club. Next are those which provide an extensive sightseeing tour of the city. Other offerings include theater tickets, trips to museums or complete freedom to do as the visitor chooses.

The tours can be varied to meet the purchaser's preferences without much change in cost. The tours can be extended for as little as $5 (single) to $8 (double) per day.

Two outstanding New York City hotels -- the Roosevelt and the Vanderbilt -- are placing their facilities at the disposal of tour purchasers and have made extensive arrangements to assure visitors an enjoyable stay.
