

MEXICO , SEPT 5-(AP)- AMON C. CARTER,
EDITOR OF THE FORT WORTH STAR TELEGRAM, ARRIVED
TODAY BY AIRPLANE FROM A SOUTH AMERICAN TOUR.

HE SAID THAT VARIOUS ISOLATED INCIDENTS OF WHICH MEXICANS HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS IN TEXAS SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS "THE EXPRESSION OF THE 6,000,000 INHABITANTS OF THAT STATE."

HE MADE THE STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION ABOUT COMPLAINTS OF MEXICAN STUDENTS THAT THEY WERE INSULTED ON A RECENT VISIT TO BAY CITY AND GONZALEZ.

CARTER ALSO EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT COMMERCIAL INTERCHANGE BETWEEN TEXAS AND MEXICO "COULD AND SHOULD BE MUCH GREATER THAN IT IS.
HE SAID THAT HIS PAPER WILL WORK TO FURTHER GOOD RELATIONS BETWEEN MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES.
