NEWSPAPER EXECUTIVES ON AMPHIBIAN'S MAIDEN TRIP

New York, Aug. 15. (U.P.) — The giant S-42, largest amphibian plane in the world, recently tested by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh leaves this week on its maiden trip to South America with newspaper executives making a full complement of passenger.

The passenger list of Pan-American's big Sikorsky includes: John Cowles of the Des Moines Register; Jerome Barnum, Syracuse publisher; Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard publications; J. H. Furay, vice-president of the United Press; Frank Gannett, publisher of the Gannett newspapers; William Brooks, of the Associated Press; Paul Patterson, of the Baltimore Sun; John Wheeler, of the Bell Syndicate; and George Rial, Pan-American executive. All will embark at New York.

They will be joined at Washington by Juan Trippe, president of Pan American Airways, and Eugene Vidal, department of commerce official.

At Miami the following will board the ship: James G. Stahlman, Nashville publisher; S. Swazey of Los Angeles, Amon Carter, Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher; Edward Tomlinson of National Broadcasting company, Evan Young of Pan-American Airways; and Hirschell V. Jenkins, Savannah Morning News publisher.
