They Will Go to South
America on Big Ship's Maiden Trip

New York—(UP)—The giant S-42, largest amphibian plane in the world, recently tested by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, leaves this week on its maiden trip to South America with newspaper executives making a full complement of passengers.

The passenger list of Pan-American's big Sikorsky includes: John Cowless of the Des Moines Register; Jerome Barnum, Syracuse publisher; Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard publications; J. H. Furay, vicepresident of The United Press; Frank E. Gannett, publisher of The Gannett Newspapers; William Brooks, of The Associated Press; Paul Patterson, of the Baltimore Sun; John Wheeler, of the Bell Syndicate, and George Rial, Pan-American executive. All will embark at New York.

They will be joined at Washington by Juan Trippe, president of Pan-American Airways, and Eugene Vidal, Department of Commerce official.

At Miami the following will board the ship: James G. Stahlman, Nashville publisher; S. Swazey of Los Angeles; Amon Carter, Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher; Edward Tomlinson, of National Broadcasting Company; Evan Young of Pan-American Airways, and Hirschell V. Jenkins, Savannah Morning News publisher.
