Publisher Jenkins of Savannah Among Those In Party.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 (UP).—The giant S-42, largest amphibian plane in the world, recently tested by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, leaves this week on its maiden trip to South America with newspaper executives making a full complement of passengers.

The passenger list of Pan-American's big Sikorsky includes: John Cowles of Des Moines Register; Jerome Barnum, Syracuse publisher; Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard publications; J. H. Furay, vice president of the United Press; Frank Gannett, publisher of the Gannet newspapers; William Brooks, of the Associated Press; Paul Patterson, of the Baltimore Sun; John Wheeler, of the Bell Syndicate; and George Rial, Pan-American executive. All will embark at New York.

They will be joined at Washington by: Juan Trippe, president of Pan-American Airways; and Eugene Vidal, Department of Commerce official.

At Miami the following will board the ship: James G. Stahlman Nashville publisher; S. Swazey of Los Angeles; Amon Carter, Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher; Edward Tomlinson of National Broadcasting Co.; Evan Young of Pan-American Airways; and Herschel V. Jenkins, Savannah Morning News and Evening Press publisher.

Herschel V. Jenkins, publisher of the Evening Press and Morning News, left Savannah yesterday afternoon for Miami to join the above party.
