

Burkelle's
EST. 1883

PRESS CLIPPING
BUREAU
NEW YORK

---

NEW YORK CITY VARIETY
AUGUST 21, 1934

Newspaper Pubs' Plane Trip

Exceptional group of newspaper men were rounded up for a trip from Miami to Buenos Aires on the Brazilian Clipper, new super-transport plane. Passengers included Roy Howard, head of Scripps-Howard; William F. Brooks, assistant to general manager of the Associated Press; James H. Furey, vice-president United Press; James G. Stalman, publisher Nashville Banner; Frank E. Gannett, head of Gannett chain; Edgar M. Swasey, vice president of American Weekly; M. C. Meigs, manager of Chicago American; Paul Patterson, publisher of Baltimore Sun; Amon G. Carter, publisher of Fort Worth Star-Telegram; H. V. Jenkins, publisher of Savannah News and Press; Jerome Barnum, publisher of Syracuse Post-Standard; John Cowles, publisher of Des Moines Register and Tribune; J. N. Wheeler, general manager of North American Newspaper Alliance, and Edward G. Tomlinson of National Broadcasting Company.

NBC broadcast the events of the trip and arrival in Rio yesterday (20) to the U.S.