

The Speaker's Rooms
House of Representatives U. S.
Washington, D. C.

January 20, 1932

Dear Amon:

When I got in last evening, pretty late I might as well admit, that is late for dinner, Mrs. Garner directed my attention to a tray laden with a number of things. We recognized it as the tray we saw in your rooms the night before, and while there was no word accompanying it, I knew where it came from.

I thank you most sincerely for these "leavings"- they will surely come in handy, beginning this evening when I call in the "lame and the halt and the blind" and incidentally the dry.

Mrs. Garner joins me in warm personal regards.

Cordially your friend,

Geo. W. Garner
