Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

Last night when I got to the Hotel I found a package from the John B. Stetson Company, Philadelphia, containing a hat.

I put the hat on, strutted before the glass, shook my head a little and turned to my wife and said-this is a wonderful hat, it is like that Amon Carter hat.
Then I opened the letter from the Company and found that it was an Amon Carter hat.

I certainly shall enjoy wearing it- it is the perfection of comfort and in these, my older days, a comfortable hat is greatly to be desired. I wont try to express my thanks for I can't- you will have to take them for granted.

Mrs. Garner joins me in warm personal regards and best wishes.

Cordially your friend,

Geo. W. Garner
