Hon. Amon Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Get out your tomahawk, but dont use it until you hear what I have to say.

The last day or two has been sulphurous around these premises- what with telegrams passing back and forth between here and New York, telephone talks and letters, the waters have been anything but placid; however; ~~however~~ Mr. Garner has to go to New York in a very few days. He does not know whether he will go by train or plane, but he does know that he cannot have that visit with you on his trip east this time. He had planned that for a few weeks hence before these developments arose, but he said he still expected to make it even if it was a little delayed.

I am not going with him as I would be in the way- the trip is all business and I can't be of any help this time.
The situation may be different when he starts making a campaign, and if so than I expect to share the pleasure with him of being your guest for a few hours.

I note what you said about mode of traveling etc. You are eminently correct. Even if your version of the situation hadn't been presented to Mr. Garner he would probably have thought of it before the time came. Up to date he has hardly had time to center his thoughts on anything. He has been going and coming from the woods, but when he is here telegrams, long distance calls, people from a distance coming to see him etc., give him no opportunity to collect his thoughts.

With personal regards, I am

Sincerely your friend,

E. R. Garner

E. R. Garner
Secretary.
