

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER

WASHINGTON

Uvalde, Texas.

July 10, 1934.

Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Mr. Garner would whip me if he knew I had not thanked you for the very nice editorial in a recent issue of your paper. As soon as he read it he told me to write you, but I didn't. In fact, I don't do half the things that I ought to do simply because I can't get at them all. Anyway, we both greatly appreciate your kindness.

It is hot and dry down here, but we continue to hope for rain.

With love to you all.

Sincerely your friend,

E. R. Garner

E. R. Garner
Secretary to the Vice President
