

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER
WASHINGTON

January 29, 1937

Dear Mr. Carter:

Please than Mrs. Deakins for the wire reporting on you. If we had gotten to see you , you would have thought Mr. Garner caught cold from you, but not so from any one I think it is just in the air and any one ready to catch, will catch. We took hold of Mr. Garner at the first sign, and on Wednesday he went to bed early in the afternoon and stayed there until this morning. I think he is O. K. now.

It was grand to see you and Mrs. Carter- just sorry the conditions and weather were unfavorable to seeing more of you both.

Love and best wishes from us both.

Sincerely your friend,

E. R. Garner

E. R. Garner
Secretary to the Vice President.
