June 22, 1940.

Mrs. John N. Garner,
The Vice-President's Office,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mrs. Garner:

Mr. Carter has been in New York since the first of June and the writer has been out of the office on account of illness for ten days which accounts for the delay in acknowledging your letter of June 17.

The day I left the office for the hospital Mr. Carter received a letter from the Chairman of the West Point Examining Board, Fort Sam Houston, advising that these reports were forwarded to the War Department in Washington and he could not give us the desired information about Tommy Duke. Inasmuch as Mr. Carter was to be in Washington to go with Ruth to Annapolis for the June Week festivities I forwarded the letter to him with the idea he might be able to look into the matter while there. However, when I talked to Mr. Carter this morning he advised he was such a short time and was unable to find you (I believe he said you were out of the city) — so, nothing has been done.

Mr. Carter is expected home Monday morning and the matter will be brought to his attention immediately.

Thanking you for your patience in the matter, I am

Sincerely,

Secy. to A. G. Carter.
