

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER

WASHINGTON

Dec. 22nd 1940.

Dear Mr. Carter:- I do hope that there is an infinitesimal part of the cheer in your heart that you are filling the hearts of others with - you are just too nice to be real - I tried to thank you a few days ago - since then you have showered us with goodies - I am afraid with all these delicious things to eat we will be waddling instead of walking. Everything is so good. Thank you a million. The sun is shining today - there was frost this morning - altogether it is a grand day after the drizzle of the past week. Mr. Garner has a fine day hunting yesterday - he is going out again tomorrow - wants to be out as much as possible before he leaves. I will go to Amanita the day he goes to Washington. My love and best wishes to the foursome. Hope we will be seeing you.

With great affection -
Sincerely
Ethel R. Garner
