Mr. Amon G. Carter, Publisher,
Fort Worth Star Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Harper's numbered the first hundred of my books, "Garner of Texas" and sent them to you in four packages of 25 each, through Stripling's, Monnig's, the Fair and Cox's. I cannot tell you how much I appreciate your help to me on this.

I do not know whether the book will sell or not, but I do hope to get it into public libraries and school and college libraries in Texas. I feel as you do that Mr. Garner has been a great credit to Texas. I hope some day some one will do a better book on him than I have.

The book will be on sale on September 29th and I expect to be in Fort Worth on the following Monday, October 4th. Harper's has made arrangements for me to autograph some books at some store there. I have not got the details yet.

With all best wishes, I am

Sincerely,
