Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

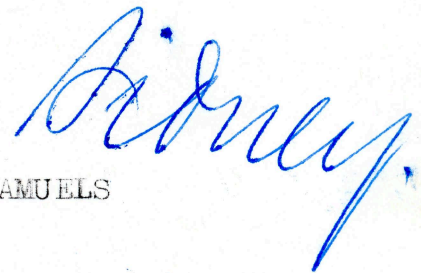

The book you sent me is a gracious gift, one that I appreciate all the more because it comes from you. I quite realize that the words of praise from Mr. Timmons, the Editor, were inspired by you because they were the words of a friendship which time has not changed or modified. I am not so foolish as to believe that I fall within the language of the giver, but none the less it is the spirit of the gift that I cherish and the regard of the giver that I would always seek to deserve.

It seems nothing short of a tragedy that the sound common sense and the wide experience of Mr. Garner could not have been drafted in the service of the Republic.

Assuring you once again of my deep appreciation of the gift and of the thought that lay behind it, believe me,

Sincerely,

SIDNEY L. SAMUELS
