Dear Mr. Carter:

I was pleasantly surprised yesterday to find delivered to my home with your compliments a copy of "Garner of Texas". While I have not as yet had an opportunity to read it, I know I am going to enjoy doing so because I have always considered Mr. Garner one of the outstanding men of our nation, and we Texans are proud of him.

Your thoughtfulness in sending me the book is deeply appreciated, and I thank you for this nice contribution to my modest library.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Yours very truly,

HUGH M. CRAIG
