Dear Mr. Carter:

Thank you very much for the autographed copy of "Garner of Texas." I have just begun it, but already find it very interesting reading.

The account of Mr. Garner's first years of law practice was of especial interest to me since I have just returned from taking the Bar examinations in Austin. The exams, by the way, were quite long and difficult. The next six weeks will be a time of anxious waiting to hear the results. Meanwhile, I plan to spend my time studying the local courts and getting as much practical experience, by observation, as possible. I have just sent a quantity of Texas review material to J. Lee so that he can begin to get ready for his go at the exams in February.

Thank you again for the Garner biography, and for your kindness in thinking of me.

Sincerely,

Edmund
