Dear Amon:

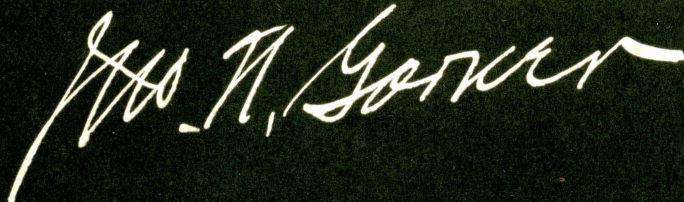

I can't express to you my heartfelt appreciation of your telegram concerning my birthday. I think you are a real great American and I am proud of your good friendship. I am in fairly good health, able to strike a blow for liberty each afternoon about 5 o'clock. I have many visitors and am enjoying life.

I agree with you completely concerning your expressions touching President Eisenhower and, like you, I wish his administration the greatest possible success. By the way, Amon, when the President was elected I wrote and told him that I had had the privilege of congratulating eight Presidents of the United States on their election and, that since I could not meet him face to face, I hoped he would take this written congratulations. In response to that letter I have one of the finest, I'll bet you a thin dime, of any man in the United States. I want to see all of my Presidents make a success of their administration. That means success of my country, and, while I am an intense partisan, I know that I am a patriot first.

May you have good health and enjoy life, is the wish of

Your friend,

Jno. N. Garner
