Dear Amon:

First, I want to thank you sincerely for the invitation to dinner a week ago. It was as good as the best, if not the best, you ever had. What would we all do without Amon? I mean this; you have been carrying on this way here in our midst at least 35 years or more to my knowledge. I hope you are spared for many more years and that God Almighty will bless you with good health. That is all you can ask for now.

I was fortunate in my seat. I had the good pleasure of having aviation men all around me. On my right was John F. Budd, Chairman Aviation Section New York Board of Trade, and others. I enjoyed their company.

Then those boys at the next table were the pilots; a grand bunch of boys. Mr. Budd introduced me to each and every one of them. Those boys sure enjoyed themselves.

Thanks again and my best wishes. I am

Geo. Beggs
