Dear Mr. Carter:

Among the many agreeable memories of my recent trip one that I shall always cherish is the recollection of the hospitality I enjoyed at your ranch. It was indeed a happy occasion and I want you to know how much I appreciate the trouble you took to make my visit pleasant. I am preserving carefully the western hat and cane you gave me and they will always be happy reminders of my stay with you. Your courtesy in introducing me at luncheon and the wonderful newspaper stories I shall long remember.

If you come to New York at any time I trust that you will look me up. It will be a real pleasure to meet you again.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Amon Carter,
