

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Mexico, November 6, 1942

My dear Mr. Carter:

Through the courtesy of Mr. Swift and the American Air Lines, there has been delivered to me the Texas hat which you were good enough to send me.

It fits to perfection - but whether I shall be able to wear it with distinction I shall have to leave to others. In any event, I appreciate very much indeed your generous thought of me, and I hope that the next time you come to Mexico City it may be for a longer stay and that we shall have the pleasure of seeing you in the Embassy Residence.

Our work here gets constantly heavier, but I am happy to say that the situation continues to develop in a very satisfactory manner.

With every good wish and sincere appreciation, believe me

Cordially yours,
