

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 6, 1936

Dear Amon:

Upon our return to Washington this morning, I found your letter of November fourth and also your note of October twenty-sixth, written from Guam. You surely had a marvelous trip and I do wish I could have been with you.

Too bad you couldn't get back for election but I know you are as thrilled as we are over the outcome.

With all best wishes and hoping to see you soon,

Sincerely,

M. H. McINTYRE
Assistant Secretary
to the President

Amon G. Carter, Esq.,
