

THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE
WASHINGTON

November 6, 1936

Dear Amon:

I wish to thank you cordially for remembering me with that delightful communication from Guam. I was especially pleased to know that you were taking this trip, but am more pleased to know that nothing happened to my good friend and that you returned in time to take part in the very remarkable election of last Tuesday.

I notice what you say about the development of the air service which interests me very much. I am anxious that this Department shall exercise every proper instrumentality to keep in the lead of the world in our air service. I hope that we will soon have an opportunity of discussing this face to face.

In the meantime, I am, with cordial thanks for your communication and with gratitude for your friendship,

Very sincerely,
