

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER
WASHINGTON

Uvalde, Texas.
Nov. 6, 1936

Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

The telegrams came pouring in so fast and furiously that we could not keep up with them- Mr. Garner kept dictating but at last just threw up the sponge and hiked it to the woods. He left me to write to our more intimate friends. He read your wire with great pleasure and appreciation, but as you always do the nicest things, there is nothing new for me to say. We just hold you in our hearts.

Your letter mailed at Guam will be on his desk when he gets in- I have read it with a great deal of interest.

Your reference to our dear Will Rogers arouses that old question in my mind- do our dear departed friends keep watch over us? I like to think it is true. He is one who will always live in the hearts of those who loved him, and many loved him who never saw him. I know that to be a fact.

I must get on so again thank you and send love and best wishes.

Truly your friend,

E. R. Garner
E. R. Garner
Secretary to the Vice President.
