Dear Amon:-

You are a peach to write me from Guam and, incidentally, in writing to give me an envelope with stamps that will give joy to my son Thomas who goes to Andover and who finds sex-appeal in stamps only! Marvelous attribute, don't you think?

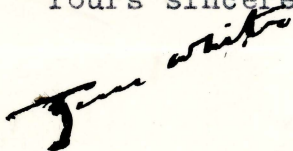

What a wonderful trip you must have had. What fun.

The next time you are up in town, I think you ought to give us an illustrated lecture. Bring a couple of guns along in case anyone in the audience is insufficiently attentive.

I can make this suggestion with perfect fearlessness because I know how interested I would be.

Yours sincerely,
