Dear [Name],

You letter of the 26 reached me Wednesday.

It was most welcome news and of course gave me a thrill. It reads;

"Clipper mail. In way off town, Ed got in on Wednesday noon and left on Thursday by plane for L.A. It is story of the trip was most interesting.

He arrived. That he did not fly around the world.

The Democratic Party is under deep obligations to the Republicans for twice electing F.D.R.

Your friends are very sorry that you did not come on your way through.

Ed think come fly East short.

Wish best wishes, and hoping nothing will prevent you being as usual next month. May picture.

Yours truly,

J. Downey-Harvey
