

FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM

MORNING

EVENING

SUNDAY

AMON G. CARTER, PRESIDENT

November 7, 1936.
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Mr. James H. Underwood,
Postmaster,
Guam, Guam.

Dear Mr. Underwood:

Well, here we are back home - right where we started from, after covering 21,500 miles by air from Fort Worth to HongKong and return. We left Honolulu Sunday morning, November 1st., and arrived in San Francisco Monday morning at 9:45 - 20 hours and 20 minutes, bucking a 25 knott an hour head wind. I caught a plane to Los Angeles and spent election day there and then on home Wednesday morning.

Please accept my thanks and appreciation for the courtesy extended me during my visit to your city, also for the two nice covers which you were good enough to give me for my youngsters' collection.

The election is over and I think even the most enthusiastic Democrats were surprised at the avalance when the votes commenced pouring in.

Thanking you, again, and with best wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

AGC.KD
