Dear Amon:

Your thoughtfulness in writing me while on the Pacific hop is far more appreciated than you can realize. First, I am just old-fashioned enough to know that when a buddy takes time out to pen a longhand letter that there is a deep evidence of friendship which goes far beyond the postcard idea.

The second reason that your thoughtfulness was highly valued is because Mrs. Barnum has been a collector of airmail stamps for years and the stamp on your letter immediately found a place in her stamp book.

I imagine you had a grand time. Certainly on the first hop to Hawaii you had a sufficient number of hours to clean up the bridge board and knock off the dice hounds. Did you have any trouble with Hawaiian policemen or cab drivers?

It will please you to know that at the Executive Committee meeting of the board of the A. N. P. A. last week at New York the president was ordered to write a formal invitation to President Roosevelt asking him to be the honor guest and speaker at the 50th anniversary luncheon of the Association Tuesday, April 20th. It seems to me the invitation carries a great significance. I earnestly hope that he will accept.

By the way, we are planning a board meeting in New York in December and so if you are there, I hope you will lock us up because we will be ready to give you a free luncheon.

With every fine wish, and with great appreciation of your thoughtfulness of me,

Cordially,

RECEIVED
