Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Mr. E. Balluder, manager of our Western Division, recently sent me a copy of his letter to you about my visit to your city, Fort Worth. My work here in San Antonio has been finished and it is with pleasure that I am looking forward to meeting you. I feel that I do know you because you are our Number One Passenger.

I will arrive in Fort Worth late Monday and will remain there through February 14th, stopping at the Texas Hotel.

The purpose of my visit is to acquaint the people of Fort Worth with South America through the medium of our popular travelogue film, "Flying The Lindbergh Trail". As Mr. Balluder mentioned in his letter, it will be a pleasure to present this picture at a private advance showing to a group of your friends.

I will try to arrange an appointment with you early Tuesday morning at your office to talk over with you about any suggestions you might care to offer.

I am looking forward to your valuable cooperation.

Sincerely,

Porter Norris
