Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Forth Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter,

We have just received word from Canada that the sleeping bag which we ordered for you last month has been returned by the censor. No more sleeping bags may be shipped to prisoners of war. We are extremely sorry to be forced by this change in regulation to disappoint you, for we realize how valuable this bag would be to Lieut. Carter.

We are enclosing herewith our check for $8.25 which was the amount you sent us for the bag, and trust you will understand our inability to fill your order.

Sincerely yours,

Alice F. Goodhue

Mrs. Charles Prentice Goodhue
