

AMERICAN RED CROSS

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS

WASHINGTON 13, D. C.

March 3, 1944

Mr. Amon G. Carter, Sr.
Star-Telegram Building
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

We have checked our lists to try to find some explanation of your not having received the Prisoners of War Bulletin regularly, but everything seems to be in order. Our mailing is not done early in the month under the best of circumstances, and we have been compelled to use inexperienced help recently, so perhaps this is the explanation. During the Christmas rush, too, we believe the Post Office was forced to put aside a certain amount of second class mailing. Please forgive us,-- but don't expect the Bulletin before the second or third week of any month at best.

Sincerely yours,

Marion Hale Britten
