Mr. Victor Emanuel,
The Aviation Corporation,
420 Lexington Avenue,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Victor: We are having a home coming barbecue for C. R. Smith and the Directors of the American Airlines at Shady Oak Farm, Wednesday night, September nineteenth. We will probably have five hundred folks present and would be tickled to death to have you, Tom O'hara, Frances Callery, or anyone else you would like to fetch along. You have ^{been} promising a long time to pay us a visit in Fort Worth and this would be a fine opportunity to take a look at the Consolidated plant and the B-thirty-six, meet some good country folks, and have a hell of a good time. Best regards

Amon Carter
