Dear Eddie: C. R. Smith advises me you will be unable to be with us for the meeting here September 19. We are having a special old time barbecue at Shady Oak Farm where there will be about three hundred prominent guests and I am going to be greatly disappointed if you do not join us for this occasion. Have rooms and accommodations for you at the Fort Worth Club. You will be away from your business only a few days and I hope you will reconsider and give me the pleasure of having you as my guest. Sincerely

AMON CARTER
