MORNING

EVENING

SUNDAY

AMON G. CARTER, PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

May 29, 1944.

Mr. Kent Cooper,
Executive Director,
Associated Press,
50 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Kent:

This will introduce to you Miss Mimie Roggen of Houston, Texas, who will be in New York the early part of June and is very anxious, the same as I, to have an opportunity to see Mr. Larry Allen when he returns from a German prisoner of war camp on the Crispholm soon.

Miss Roggen's brother is in the same German prisoner of war camp, Oflag 64, located in Poland, as Amon Junior and Mr. Allen is returning from there. Therefore, you can readily understand our desire to see and hear about the life and activities in this particular camp.

I am sure Miss Roggen will get in touch with you when she reaches New York and any assistance you may be able to render in this connection shall be appreciated.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

J. G. Carter
