

107 Brown Street
Waxahachie, Texas
June 9, 1943

Mr. Amon G. Carter, Sr.
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

I was so glad to get to talk to you Saturday afternoon and find out a few things about the boys in Germany. For one thing, I was glad to know they were out of the flood area, and also to learn that I could send candy and cigarettes to Edward through the Canadian Red Cross. I believe that you said that you would have that address sent to me as I do not know where to write to. As I haven't received it yet, I thought possibly you had forgotten just what it was that I asked about. I know that you are very busy and have a lot of things on your mind at once. It may be that you have already had this information sent to me and I haven't received it yet. Of course, I am very anxious to send Ed something to eat since he said he had lost so much weight, and I will not be able to send another package through the American Red Cross until July 10 as the other label was sent to me on May 10.

I received another letter from Ed yesterday, written April 3. He didn't say much except to tell me what he wanted sent to him. He said again that Amon Carter, Jr. was there and he was all right, for which I am very glad.

I certainly will appreciate your sending me the address of the Canadian Red Cross so that I can send Ed some candy and cigarettes.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Edward Batte

Mrs. Edward G. Batte

