ONE HUNDRED TWENTY BROADWAY

NEW YORK

JAMES G. BLAINE
PRESIDENT

April 20th, 1943.

Dear Mr. Carter:

When Mrs. Blaine and I were in Fort Worth the weekend of March 20th, Ellison Harding was going to take me over to see you. He told me of the deep distress you were in because your son was reported missing, and having a boy myself in the Marine Corps in the Solomon Islands, I felt very deeply for you. Unfortunately you had to go to Washington and I missed you.

Since then I have read the news that your boy is safe, albeit a prisoner of war. I just want to tell you how glad I am for you that your boy is alive.

Very sincerely yours,

James G. Blaine
