

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD
WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF MEMBER

April 17, 1943.

Mr. Amon Carter,
Publisher, Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Amon:

Just to let you know that I am rejoicing with you in the official information that your son, Amon Carter, Jr., who has been missing in action in Africa since February 14, is alive, even though a prisoner of war in Germany. The news item which I saw in this morning's paper was the first information I had that your son had been missing.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Harllee Branch

Harllee Branch.

