Feb. 8th 1944

Dear Mr. Carter :-

I have delayed writing you for a week, thinking and hoping I would have a letter from Col. Barron, but not a word here I heard.

Mr and Mrs A.H. Lawrence did have a letter yesterday from the War. Dept, but no detailed information other than verifying so interested in our loved ones in a flag 64.

I cannot tell you how much I enjoyed talking with you and I am sure our men over there realize you are the best friend they have in the United States.

From the many good things I have heard about your son, he is truly deserving of the fine
and devoted father that

Capt. Lawrence's death.
Still no date of his death.

I was in Austria over Saturday and Sunday;
saw Mrs Charles Jones

He is in Camp 64. She is quite worried, for his last letter to her was dated Nov. 14th.

I told her about our visit and it helped her to know you were

I will let you know
 at once, should I hear from Col. Barron and I sincerely hope you will hear from Lt. Carter very, very soon, and will you let me know.

Thanking you kindly,

I am Sincerely
